However, in the event of an opening for a TB within two weeks prior to the TB's scheduled run, previous applicants may be selected to move into that slot. In that event, the Tokyo 2020 Organising Committee will notify the individual of their nomination.

Basic Requirements for TB Applicants

Those wishing to apply as TBs must fulfill the following basic requirements.

- Applicants shall have been born before or on April 1, 2008. Provided, however, that applicants under the age of 18 as of March 1, 2020 (the first day of the month in which the Torch Relay starts) must have the consent of parents or guardian.
- As a rule, applicants should have some connection to the prefecture in which they wish to run (including those who reside in or have resided in the prefecture; those whose workplace or school is located there; those with family members or relatives living there; those previously involved in any activities there, and so on).
- Individuals may apply regardless of nationality or gender.
- Applicants shall be able to carry the flame safely and of their own will. Provided, however, that support staff (escorts) may attend when necessary.
- Those intending to use the Torch Relay to convey political or religious messages are ineligible to serve as TBs.
- Those in serving in public office as stipulated by the Public Offices Election Act (including Diet members, legislators and heads of local government), candidates for public office or those considering such candidacy, heads of political parties or political organizations and those in equivalent positions are ineligible to serve as TBs.
- Religious figures are ineligible to serve as TBs based on their religious reputations.

Basic Approach to TBs Nomination

The basic approach of the Tokyo 2020 Organising Committee in the nomination of the Tokyo 2020 Olympic TBs is as follows:

All people

- A balance of nationalities, abilities and disabilities, genders and ages is the goal for the open Relay in which TBs to be selected from a wide range of fields.
- TBs are to be selected primarily from among those who are active in their communities.

Strong Spirit(The Spirit of Supporting)

- Individuals who, in their daily lives, support family, friends, colleagues and others. Confronting any difficulties without giving up.
(Ex.) Someone making an enormous contribution to the revival of their local community from previous disasters.

Tolerance(The Spirit of Accepting)

- Individuals engaged in new endeavors while recognizing the differences between each other.
(Ex.) Someone who creates a sports community for children and developing a center for their community where many locals can get together.
Someone who has contributed to building a new brand for their community by bringing residents and newcomers together.

Oneness from Each Occasions(The Spirit of Encouraging)

- Individuals who can enhance a sense of local unity by running as a TB.
(Ex.) Someone who supports local traditions and cultural activities behind the scenes.
